

Fresh Perspectives: Morocco

April 3rd – 7th

HORIZ  NS

Fresh Perspectives is a leadership and wellness retreat designed to inspire individuals to engage in defining personal purpose and career objectives.

Our world-class development coach, Scotty Johnson, will use a pioneering mixture of techniques and methodologies to connect the group around shared values and individual intentions. Scotty will use the inspiring scenery of the Ourika Valley to facilitate a series of workshops and activities that will help you better understand yourself, what success looks like to you and how you can align your personal values to your desires and dreams. You will develop your leadership qualities, de-stress, connect and have fun.

Hosted on a unique private farm in the foothills of the Atlas Mountains, you will have the choice of glamping in our Berber Village or staying in one of the beautiful suites in the farmhouse. This all-inclusive event will provide time for self-reflection and thought-provoking dialogue, along with indulging in the unique culture of Morocco. You will have the opportunity to connect over farm-to-table food, hike in the mountains, and explore the boho-chic style of Marrakesh.

You will acquire the necessary skills and peer-to-peer frameworks to ensure you have accountability following the trip. The Horizons community will provide you with a curated support system as you strive to achieve positive change.

Outcomes

- Explore and understand your values
- Acquire key coaching skills and awareness of your personal leadership
- Identify bold actions to make your vision a reality

Horizons events assemble a unique group of entrepreneurs, investors, and philanthropists under 40 – each one selected for their potential and desire to be a future leader.

Join us for an experience that will be immersive, engaging and purposeful.
